PARENT SURVEY

Thank you for your participation in our survey last week. We are interested in learning more about your continued experience with your child's home-based learning (HBL) so we can best communicate and respond appropriately to your child's needs.

Here is the link for the survey:

LIBRARY RESOURCES

As we implement Home-based Learning(HBL), students can make the most out of our library resources. As such, we would like to provide useful tips as to our online library resources (<http://library.yhischina.com>). Once you access the website, you will see different databases that will require different login credentials. Please refer to the following login information.

ISC FINE ARTS FESTIVAL CANCELLED

Due to the novel coronavirus situation, school trips that involve travel in March have been canceled. ISC Fine Arts Festival, which was on the calendar for March, is also canceled for high school students. We are sorry for the disappointment that this may cause for those who planned to attend. In our online music HBL lessons students will continue to study and enjoy music in other ways for Spring Semester.

NOVEL CORONAVIRUS ONLINE CLASS

This Thursday YIA students attended an online class on the topic of 2019-nCoV during Ms. Lin's Zoom Consultation hour. Through this class, students learned the current situation in China, the stories of front-line medical workers, other countries' donations for China in fighting back against the outbreak and how overseas Chinese support Wuhan in many ways. We hope through that students learn that when our country is in a difficult time, we all share the burden. As a future
