YIA Ambassadors participated in an International Education Exposition

At the recent International Education Expo, our three student ambassadors performed exceptionally well in their roles of reception and counseling. They proactively engaged with prospective families, demonstrating a positive mental outlook. By sharing their personal experiences, they provided parents with firsthand insights into our curriculum and campus life. Their sincere and professional interactions not only effectively addressed parents' school-selection queries but also significantly enhanced our school's brand image.

Secondary drama teacher, Mr. Bower, announced the YIA/YHIS spring musical this week—The Sound of Music! This is one of the most popular musicals worldwide and we look forward to seeing our wonderful students on stage as they tell the amazing story of the Von Trapp family singers and their escape from Nazi-occupied Austria at the outbreak of World War II.

Auditions: December 10 after school (sign up in the drama classroom)

Recognizing LifePlus 9 Qualities for Life

Teaching students about the LifePlus 9 Qualities for Life is an integral part of the character education and development program at YIA. Each month, YIA teaches about a single characteristic, and we award students from all grade levels who have demonstrated that characteristic the most. Teachers observe the students throughout the month and nominate winners. For the month of October, our focus was on "Courage". We would like to congratulate and recognize the following students for leading with courage among their peers!

The students boldly did what was best, asked questions, made mistakes, and persisted in thinking and discussing, even in the presence of fear in both the classroom and school community. We are proud of these students!
